NATION SORROWS AT HER BEDSIDE

Cherished Idol of Stricken Chief is Dying

Few Hours Will Loosen Mrs. McKinley's Hold on Life and She Will Join Husband.

SUSTAINS APOPLEXY STROKE.

Canton, O., May 24.—Dr. Portman, who is attending Mrs. McKinley, widow of the president, said this morning that her heart is stronger and she is in no immediate danger of death. Should she continue to improve she might survive for a week. Her strength being kept up by heart stimulants.

Attendants at the bedside of Mrs. McKinley at 1:30 this morning thought her condition somewhat improved.

After a consultation at the McKinley home by Dr. E. C. Portman, family physician of Mrs. McKinley, and Dr. J. R. Eymann, superintendent of the Massillon State hospital, physicians of wide reputation, a statement was issued that there were no indications that Mrs. McKinley could long survive the attack of apoplexy from which she is suffering. The doctors say, however, that they think dissolution will not come for a day or two.

Mrs. McKinley is in a comatose condition and it is stated that there are no grounds for hope of a better turn. It is announced that surgeon General Rixey by special railway arrangement will reach here today.

Telegrams from all parts of the country have been pouring into Canton anxiously inquiring as to Mrs. McKinley's condition and evincing widespread sorrow over the announcement of her critical illness.

Mrs. McKinley has been ill nearly all winter, having suffered a severe attack of grip some months ago followed later by bronchitis. Physicians say that in her weakened condition she was an easy victim to the disease with which she was stricken today.

Nearing Sixtieth Birthday.

She is nearing her sixtieth birthday and as is well known that she has long been in feeble health. Mrs. McKinley gave up knitting recently and this was taken as an indication that her hold upon life was slight, as ever since the tragic death of her husband she has found solace in knitting slippers for friends and invalids.

Of late Mrs. McKinley has been obliged to keep close within doors, but before that she was in the habit of taking daily walks and of riding to the cemetery with flowers to place upon the casket which contains the body of her late husband.

Dr. Portman after his visit to the McKinley home at 11 o'clock announced that he found a change for the better in Mrs. McKinley's condition. She was then in a semi-conscious condition. When spoken to she opened her eyes slightly. Dr. Portman, however, said the change was not such as would lead him to expect any great improvement, neither did he think a fatal turn could be expected before morning. He regarded her condition as satisfactory as could be expected under the circumstances but at the same time could predict only a survival of a few days at the most, judging from the present state of the patient.

All Canton Mourns.
The feeling of mourning in Canton over Mrs. McKinley's condition is only second to that which was exhibited during the few days that preceded the death of her lamented husband.

Rev. M. E. Buxton, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church and Mrs. McKinley's clergyman, came down the steps of the McKinley home after a visit at Mrs. McKinley's bedside. Buxton had been shedding tears.

"Mrs. McKinley is very low," he said. "Four nurses are attending; two nurses remain at her bedside continually. Her weakness is pitiful. It scarcely seems possible that she can live more than a few hours at the most. I believe everything medical skill can do is being done to prolong her life until the arrival of Surgeon General Rixey."

Wish May Not Be Fulfilled.
Buxton is pastor of the church from which President McKinley was buried.

It is stated by a close friend of Mrs. McKinley that it had been her greatest wish that she might live to witness the unveiling of the monument to President McKinley in September but that recently she had expressed the belief that she would be denied that privilege.

ALL FOR RUSSIA.

St. Petersburg, May 24.—Replying to congratulations sent him by the council of the empire upon his escape from the recently discovered plot against his life, Czar Nicholas sent the following message today: "I heartily thank the council of the empire for expressing its sentiments. WAR ON BAD MEN.

Boise, Idaho, May 24.—War was declared by Chief of Police Francis against certain alleged professional bad men, who have drifted into Boise, now posing as witnesses and detectives concerned in the trial of Haywood for Steenberg murder. They strut about the streets ostentatiously displaying fire arms. The chief sent for three of them today and ordered them to leave town before Sunday.

WAR ON TRUST.

St. Paul, May 24.—A great battle for the dissolution of the oil trust was begun here in earnest today. The question being fought before the circuit court is whether the government in a bill, which it has filed for dissolution of the trust, must confine its allegations of wrong doing to the period following 1899. This has come to court on demurrer.

WOMAN ASSAULTED.

Gallipolis, O., May 24.—Mrs. Charles Gotschall, wife of a farmer near here, was assaulted and beaten and her hair cut off by two men dressed in women's clothes last night. The woman was alone with four children. Her recovery is improbable. There is no clew.

The Treasury Cortelyou left for Canton upon learning of the critical illness in that city of Mrs. William McKinley.

MUSIC FESTIVAL MATINEE TODAY

Innes Band Comes in From Triumph at Hopkinsville

Program For Tonight Presents Delightful Variety, Vocal and Instrumental.

WOMAN'S CLUB HAS SUCCESS

The May Music Festival opened this afternoon at Wallace park. This audience is large and tonight promises a record one. Mr. Innes and his famous band arrived this morning from Hopkinsville where they have just closed a most successful engagement. It was Hopkinsville's first music festival, also; and the press notices as well as private letters received by members of the Woman's club here, are enthusiastic in praise. The same soloists who are with Mr. Innes here, Miss Listemann, Mrs. Park, Messrs. Carr and Shaw, were with him in Hopkinsville. From here the band will fill dates in Indiana and Illinois until June 1, when they open their engagement at the Jamestown exposition. Mr. Innes is too well known by reputation not to attract all who have never heard him, and those who have been keen to renew the pleasure. The second part of the afternoon program is a Wagner festival and tonight at 8 o'clock the program will be:

1. Second Hungarian Rhapsody. Liszt
 2. The Two Grenadiers, song for basso Schumann

LUMBER PLANT BURNS TO GROUND

A. B. Smith Biggest Loser in Fire at Brookport Early
This Morning—Mill of Southern Pine Company

LOSS WILL BE ABOUT $7,000.

Brookport, Ill., May 24.—(Special)—Fire originating from the furnace totally consumed the Southern Pine company's plant, with 50,000 feet of lumber, early this morning. The concern is owned principally by A. B. Smith, of Paducah, and the total loss probably is $7,000, covered by insurance. The plant manufactures cross arms for telephone poles.

The fire was discovered about 1 o'clock this morning by Henry Walters, watchman at Margrave's plant nearby, but by the time the fire department reached the scene the fire had gained such headway that the firemen could do nothing with the limited resources at hand. The Margrave plant was not injured.

MAY SETTLE STRIKE.

Effort Made To Bring About An Arbitration.

Acting as intermediaries, several merchants interested themselves and saw the contractors yesterday who have not signed the carpenter's scale, to arrange a meeting of three committees, one from the carpenters, one from the contractors and third from the Commercial club, to try to bring about an adjustment of the points in question between the carpenters and contractors. Nothing came of it, but it is intimated that a settlement of the differences will be made in a few weeks.

Infant Dies.

RUNNING RACES AT NEXT MATINEE

Horsemen From Western Kentucky and Southern Illinois Will Summer Thoroughbreds at the Fair Grounds

BEST OF AMATEUR EVENTS.

Paducah will be the headquarters for some of the finest horsemen in this section of the country, and will be the home, during the summer, of the best racing stock in southern Illinois and western Kentucky. It is all attributable to the races given by the Matinee club, and members are jubilant over the outlook.

"The best amateur races I ever saw in my life," declared Colonel Ed Burk, an old horseman of Cairo, "I shall bring a horse here and keep her here during the summer to race with you, boys."

Dr. Rollins, of Hinkleville, will bring a racer here to keep in the club stables; as also will Dr. I. H. Hughes, of Hardin; E. H. Hailey, Murray, and others from Metropolis, and nearby cities.

On June 7 the club will meet again for the purpose of deciding how often the races are to be given. At the next meet there will be one or two running races.

CAIRO WOODMEN COMING JULY 4

Cairo Woodmen of the World have chartered the excursion steamer Louisiana to bring them up to the Fourth of July celebration to be held here by the W. O. W. They wrote Chairman Steinfield that they expected to come a thousand strong. Indications are that every town in west Kentucky will be represented by large crowds.

ADOPT ARTICLES BY A CLOSE VOTE

Birmingham, Ala., May 24.—By a vote of 94 to 96 the general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church today voted in favor of adopting the Charlotte articles of agreement to enter a general council of representatives of all the churches holding the Presbyterian system, to make recommendations to the general assemblies.

Columbus, O., May 24.—The Presbyterian general assembly today chose Kansas City for the meeting of the next assembly.

ROOSEVELT MAY VISIT PADUCAH

Probably Take This Route From Memphis to Washington After Trip Down Mississippi Next Fall

WILL MAKE NO STOPS AT ALL.

President Roosevelt most likely will pass through Paducah on his way from Memphis to Washington after his Mississippi river trip, according to the following Washington dispatch:

"The president, it is said at the white house, will not make more than one speech in any one stop on his way down the Mississippi river after he leaves Canton on the 30th of September. Unless the present plans are changed only three stops are to be made in all, St. Louis, Mo., Cairo, Ill., and Memphis, Tenn. He will embark at some point in Iowa. The trip is to be made with the inland waterways commission and members of the lakes-to-gulf deep waterways association. From Memphis he is to come direct to Washington without stopping anywhere on the route."

HOW IT WAS DONE.
McCracken County Men Did Fine Work in First.

Threats to Hon. Gus Thomas, of Mayfield, that if he let his delegation go to some other than a First district man, he might miss the appellate bench; promise of rate clerkship to G. W. Landrum, and the suggestion of the psychological moment to Herman Southall's delegates won the victory for McD. Ferguson at the First district railroad convention. McCracken county, in the center between three candidates, did the fine work against the state politicians working for Finn and Southall. When Landrum was elected, Gardner's friends threatened to bolt to Finn. It was shown to Gus Thomas that this end of the state would be valuable in his fight for the appellate judgeship, while Judge Gardner was assured of loyalty when he makes the race to succeed Ferguson again. Dr. Board behind Southall, and Hines, behind Finn, are bitter political foes. When Southall was told of the Mayfield defection he came over to Ferguson, and the whole thing was settled.

LADIES AUXILIARY OF O. R. C. ELECTS OFFICERS.

The following were elected by the Ladies Auxiliary, O. R. C., in session at Memphis: Grand president, Mrs. J. H. Moore; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Higgins; grand guard, Mrs. W. S. Gaar; chairman executive committee, Mrs. Perry C. Callahan; grand senior sister, Mrs. Kathryn Fordner.

Former Ball Players Here.
Messrs. Volley Davis and Ed Eichenberger, of Cairo, passed through Paducah yesterday en route to Cairo from Metropolis. They are considering putting in an electrical show in Metropolis. Eichenberger was formerly traveling manager of the Cairo Kitty league baseball team.

REDISTRICTING PLAN OUTLINED

To Change Boundaries so as to Throw More Pupils into Territory of McKinley Building—Improvements

EIGHT ROOMS IN THE BUILDING.

Redistricting of the school population in the city is contemplated by the committee on boundaries of the school board, that would fill up two more rooms in the McKinley building, in Mechanicsburg. In this building five rooms are now in use. The second floor of the building will be fitted to accommodate the increase in pupils brought about by the redistricting. On account of the number of small pupils in that section of the city, only the seventh grade could be reached, as when that grade is added two primary rooms would be necessary, using the eight rooms. An eighth grade will be added to the Franklin building.

COMMERCIAL CLUB IS MOVING TODAY

The office of the Commercial club is today being removed from over the traction company offices to the suite of rooms recently rented in the Eagles building. The gym in the building has been given over to the use of the club for its meeting. The new quarters will be desirable.

COLORED APPLICANTS FOR COUNTY SCHOOLS.

Today County Superintendent S. J. Billington is holding an examination for colored county teachers' certificates and the following are being examined: Lois and Beattie Grubbs, Cecil; Birdie Williams, Monima Overton, Amanda Carruthers and Geneva Jordan, city. The examination is being held in the grand jury room at the court house.

Offers Made For "J. T."

Already results can be seen of the Matinee club races. "J. T.", the horse which made the best time for the half mile in the class A pace, has been in demand and the owner, J. E. Morgan, received several offers for the animal today but will not sell yet.

FIVE TEACHERS GET CERTIFICATES

Out of a class of sixteen only five applicants were successful in the county school teachers' examination last Friday and Saturday at Lone Oak. The questions were prepared by the state board, and were by far the most severe list presented in many years. The successful ones are: L. B. Alexander, Marshall county; Rudolph Naylor, Lone Oak; Willie Ezell, New Hope; Ira Faith, Little Union; Ray Bean, Sharpe, Marshall county.

BOARD COULD NOT PREFER UNIONS

Resolution of President List Finally Withdrawn

Request That Contract for School Buildings Provide for Union Labor.

TRUSTEES HAVE NO CHOICE.

Moral influence on public opinion seems to have been the motive in the request to the school board last night from the striking carpenters in the city, that in the erection of the new school buildings, only union labor be employed. This request came in the form of a motion by President List, who moved that the motion to accept the plans for the new buildings be amended by the specification that only union labor be employed in their erection. Half of the board was taken completely by surprise by the motion. After strong speeches from most of the trustees, President List withdrew his motion. The plan of other trustees to give the striking carpenters the moral influence of the school board, by making the motion read, "to favor union labor so far as practicable," was not carried out.

Without any ado, President List, toward the end of the meeting, called Vice-President Potter to the chair, and made the motion that only union labor be employed. Visibly, a ripple of surprise, characterized here by opposition and there by approval, ran around the board. Not since the meetings last summer when the English position was a bone of contention, was the atmosphere of the school board meeting electrified as it was this motion. Trustees arose in quick succession to express their opinions and some of them were sharp, while all condemned the motion as it was stated.

Trustee Beckenbach following President List said he could not favor the motion because he did not believe it was legal, but that if it was qualified to mean that so far as practicable union labor would be approved in the erection of the buildings by the school board, he would second the motion. Trustee Kelly said that a committee of the carpenter's union had called on him to request him to use his influence in passing the motion, but that he had told them that he did not believe the idea was either legal or just. So far as he was able, he said he would gladly lend his influence to them, but did not see how their idea could be executed other than by getting the contract through the lowest bid. Speaking to the board, he said he did not think over three bids would be received if the motion was adopted. However, to get the motion before the board for general discussion, Trustee Kelley seconded President List's motion.

Trustee Karnes said he did not believe such a motion would be legal and cited instances, where he said similar plans had failed. He spoke vigorously against the motion. Trustee Davis in a few words expressed disapproval. Of the other trustees present, Trustees Byrd, Potter, Clements and Brame did not speak on the motion. The situation in the board was unique for such a motion. Trustees Karnes, Davis and Brame are contractors, who have not signed the carpenter's union scale, though counterbalancing any opposition they might have, Trustee Beckenbach is a member of a union and Trustee Kelley employs union men.

Trustees Kelley and Beckenbach both admitted that the motion was an admirable war measure of the striking carpenters and expressed sympathy with the union, but they as well as the rest of the trustees, who took a positive stand, condemned the idea of discriminating in the specifications on the point of labor. President List seeing the unmistakable attitude of the board on his motion as stated, withdrew it without offering a substitute. His action closed the incident.

THREE TRUSTEES MAY BID ON WORK

New School Buildings Represent Big Contracts

Trustees Karnes, Davis and Brame Will Resign if Their Bids On Work Are Accepted.

BOARD WILL RUN INTO DEBT

Each of three members of the school board are prepared to resign their positions, should their bids on the plans accepted by the board in the called meeting last night for the erection of new buildings, be successful. Three members of the board are contractors and all likely will bid on the extensive work started by the board with the call for bids, on the Jackson street building, the North Twelfth street building, and the finishing of three rooms in the McKinley building. These trustees are Messrs. Karnes, Davis and Brame.

Rules of the board forbid a member having a contract with the board and if any of the three contractor members should have the successful bid, he would resign in order to take the contract. While it might be probable that one of these trustees would have the successful bids on the two buildings, it is improbable that each would bid on all three jobs. So that in any event two of the trustees would resign, if they had the successful bids, and it is entirely possible that each of the three members would get one each of the three jobs, necessitating three resignations. The board has changed complexion considerably of late and three resignations, two, or even one, would give it almost a new face.

It so happens that these three members compose the building committee of the board and they are thoroughly familiar with the plans of the improvements and new buildings. Last night none would say positively whether he would bid on the work, though each said he would resign if any of his bids were successful. Estimating roughly, Trustee Karnes said the Jackson street building would cost $12,000; the North Twelfth street building, $10,000; and the finishing of the three rooms in the McKinley building, $600. Aggregating $23,000, the work is a plum, which even a trustee would climb out of his position to get.

Plans of Building.

Bids were called for all the work, to be in by noon, June 4, the regular meeting day of the board. It is hoped that the contract can be awarded on that day, so that work can begin within a week or ten days thereafter. Trustee Kelley in the face of opposition, had the specifications read in the meeting. Some had read them while others were restless, but direction by committees is not Trustee Kelley's idea. The Jackson street building will be 68 feet, 4 inches, by 77 feet, 3 inches. It will be a perfectly plain building, of brick, with a tin roof. The lumber will be pine, and the long joists must be ordered from the south, requiring at least a month to be imported. This is expected to be the occasion of the greatest delay in building, but manufacturers already have written for prices and they ought to be here by the time the foundation is laid. The rooms will be 25 feet, 6 inches by 32 feet, 14 foot stories and 8 foot basement. The blackboards either will be Ormstead's Artificial slate, or plaster and lamp black. An octagon flagstaff is specified.

The North Twelfth street building will be built from the specifications of the Jackson street building, with the exception that only the lower floor and the basement will be finished. Half of the north side site may be sold as the board owns a whole block and the proceeds would be opportune now in the straightened financial condition of the board. On the question of finances, the board with the purchase of the Jackson street site, has used $7,000 out of the $25,000 received from the sale of the Long-fellow building. This leaves $18,000 to care for $23,000 worth of work ordered last night, some $400 for new desks for the high school, and whatever furniture it may be necessary to install in the new buildings. Added to this, running expenses for May and June amounting to $6,000 or $7,000 must be borrowed. In July the semi-annual taxes are paid and the school fund will be replenished but the board will close the year $12,000 or $15,000 in debt.

Officers Will Return Tonight. Patrolman Lige Cross and Detective T. J. Moore will return from Lexington tonight, after delivering two charges to the state reformatory.

A Toothpick Case.

A New York young man with an air not as jaunty as he hoped it might appear, stepped up to the desk of one of the big hotels and asked: "Have you any mail for Jay Jay Bunk? Thought I would stop here, but struck the Knickerbocker instead."

The clerk looked the mail over, and without a word passed over two letters.

"No end of thanks," said the young man. "I'll hang up with you the next time I'm in town." As he walked away the clerk said quietly, "Another toothpick case."

"You have heard the old story of the fellows who dine at Dennett's and use their toothpicks on the Waldorf steps? Well, this chap trains in that crowd. He has been out of town somewhere throwing a bluff about living here, and he has had the cheek to make us his postoffice. It wouldn't be half so bad if he didn't add the cheap jolly about stopping here the next time. The youngest bell boy in the house would be onto him at sight."

Tantalizing Man.
"I see by the paper," said Mrs. Blinks at the breakfast table, "that a delegation of women suffragists is coming to this country."

Mr. Blinks said nothing. "And they're going to invade Washington and make a speech to the president, and all."

"I declare," snapped the lady. "You're the most tantalizing man in existence. There you sit like a statue, never saying a word to show that you don't know what you're talking about."—Atlanta Constitution.

One Woman in Every Five In This Country Works at a Gainful Pursuit

Washington, May 24.—The census bureau has just issued a report, showing that in the United States, exclusive of Alaska, Hawaii and other outlying territories, there are 4,823,630 women 16 years of age and over in continental United States in 1900 was 23,485,559, which makes one woman in every five a breadwinner. Of the number reported as divorced, 55.3 per cent, were supporting themselves wholly or in part by their own earnings. It has been suggested that the increase of divorce is partly attributable to the more independent economic position of women.

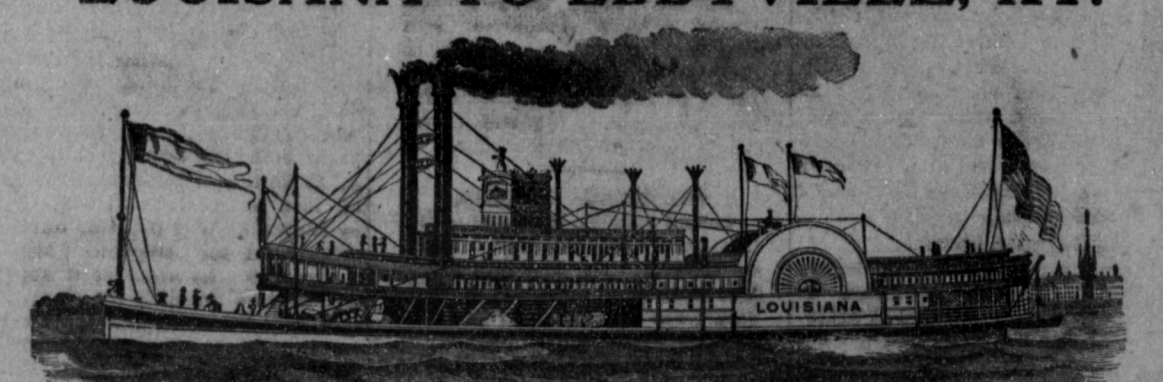

Domestic service, notwithstanding the increased diversity of employments for women, remains the most important of the occupations, almost one-fourth of those reported as engaged in gainful pursuits being returned as servants.

The census shows that five females were employed as pilots; that on steam railroads 10 were employed as baggage men, 31 as brakemen, 7 as conductors, 45 as engineers and firemen and 26 as switchmen, yardmen and flagmen; that 43 were carriage and hack drivers, 6 ship carpenters, and 2 roofers and slaters; that 185 were returned as blacksmiths and 508 as machinists; that 8 were boiler makers, 31 were charcoal, coke and lime burners and 11 were well borers.

JUST WHERE DOES ELEVENTH ST. END?

City Engineer Passes Problem to Aldermen

Makes Jog at Jefferson Street But Ordinance Does Not Consider
This Difficulty.

ALDERMEN THEN PASS IT ON

Just where Eleventh street intersects Jefferson street is the problem City Engineer Washington put before the aldermen at their regular meeting last night. An ordinance calls for the paving of Jefferson street from Ninth street to Eleventh street, but Eleventh street from the south opens into Jefferson street at the F. W. Cook Brewing company's warehouse, while Eleventh street from the north opens into Jefferson street at a point about 150 feet west. City Engineer Washington stated it was necessary to know at once just where to carry the improvement. Considerable discussion followed, and one suggestion was extend Jefferson street to the intersection of Twelfth street. But the city's funds would hardly stand such an expense, and the city may not have quite enough to pay for the improvement to Eleventh street. No decision could be reached by the aldermen and it was referred to the joint street committee, board of public works, and the city engineer with power to act.

Also it was discovered that no ordinance has been brought in providing for sidewalks, curbs and gutters on Jefferson street or Broadway. The ordinance committee was given instructions to hurry the preparations of the necessary ordinances.

Another matter brought before the board was the necessity of the Illinois Central railroad, lowering its tracks at the intersection of Jefferson street to conform to the grade of the street when improved. At present the track is about one foot higher than the grade of the street. City Engineer Washington could suggest no way around it other than by having the company lower the tracks, which will put the railroad to considerable expense. It was referred to the joint street committee by the aldermen.

More information was wanted by the ordinance committee in drafting the ordinance, prohibiting the sale of toy pistols as to whether the ordinance should read all pistols, or only the ones using cartridges. As Alderman Stewart is the father of the bill he stated it was his intention in introducing it to have all toy pistols included. The pistols using small caps are really as dangerous as the larger ones and the ordinance will read prohibiting the sale of toy pistols or instruments using high explosives. This will also include the obnoxious loaded cane.

City Clerk Henry Bailey reported to the board that President Palmer had not signed the ordinance increasing the salary of the city engineer, owing to a technicality he thought in it, as to when it would be effective. Since he understands it does not become effective until the present term of office, January 1, 1908, the aldermen presume he will sign it.

The board concurred in the action of the council in accepting the offer of property owners of Broadway to sell the necessary property to widen the roadway west of Fifteenth street at 50 cents a foot. Alderman Smith was the only one casting a dissenting vote.

Saloon Ordinance.

Further time was asked for the ordinance limiting the number of saloons in the city. Alderman Hubbard does not like the ordinance as it reads at present, and asked that the mayor be instructed to call both boards together to sit as a committee of the whole, where it may be gone over and any changes suggested.

Mayor Yelzer reported to the board the action of the court in his revocation of the saloon license of W. M. Mitchell, 1000 North Tenth street. No further action may be taken by the city at present and the board passed the case.

Relative to the request of property owners that Eighteenth street be opened between Monroe and Jefferson streets, it was found the city does not own the necessary property and the signers were notified that they would have to dedicate the right of way first.

Since the council has consented that the old city hospital property be sold, considerable remonstrance has been heard by the mayor and he placed the matter before the board. Street Inspector Elliott is opposed vigorously to selling it, as the city has much property such as piping and gravel stored and it would cost considerable to remove it. However, Mr. John Holmes says he will be lenient with the city and not require the removal at any near time. Mr. Elliott thinks by all means the city should retain the property as his department is crowded in its present quarters at the city hall, and this property should be utilized for stable purposes. It is more centrally located than any that could be purchased. Mayor Yelzer said he had heard several other remonstrances. Mr. Holmes wishes to close the deal at once or he may purchase other property. The aldermen referred the matter to the finance committee and board of public works.

Other Ordinances.

In the ordinance for the improvement of Farley place, it has been referred to as Short street and the contractor will not sign the contract owing to the technicality. The board ordered a new ordinance brought in at once, or if the contractor will get the signature of the property owners to pay the cost, it will be agreeable to the city.

First passage was given the ordinance requiring the city solicitor to defend any officials who are sued because of their official acts.

From Eighteenth street to Twenty-second street on Broadway there is no drainage, and the city engineer says the only remedy is to build a sewer and have its exit in Bradshaw creek. It was referred to the board of public works and the city engineer.

G. A. Chandler was granted a license to retain liquors at 204 South Ninth street.

L. L. Nelson complained that water runs into his house on South Third street since the improvement of the street and asked that some relief be given him. His request was referred to the city engineer and street committee.

For the beautifying of the city hall yard City Jailer Evlits was allowed $15.

The mayor was authorized to sign the paper excusing Contractor Bridges from putting in laterals in sewer district, No. 2.

Authority to renew the note for $5,000 given Miss Cornelia Johnson for injuries sustained by falling into an uncovered ditch, was given the mayor.

First Passage.

The following ordinances were given first passage: Sidewalks, curbs and gutters, Tennessee street from Third street to Twelfth street; Eighth street from Washington street to Tennessee street; Ohio street from Third street to Thirteenth street; Fifth street from Clay street to Trimble street; for graveling of street, Thirteenth street from Flournoy street to Terrell street; Boyd street from Sixth street to Seventh street; Kincaid street from Bridge street to a point 712 feet west; Farley street from Seventh street to Eighth street.

Property owners were present to protest against the improvement of Kincaid street, and also for it. Two petitions were read.

In passing the ordinance for sidewalks on Fourth street between Clay street and Trimble street, the council in giving it two passages failed to put in the width or the time and it was sent back for these corrections.

President Palmer was out of the city and Alderman P. H. Stewart was elected president pro tem.

Council Meeting.

Before the aldermen's session the mayor called the council together to give second passage for the ordinance providing for sidewalks, curbing and guttering on Broadway from Fifteenth street to the city limits.

License was granted G. A. Chandler to retail liquors at 204 South Ninth street.

DOG WAS ARISTOCRAT OF VANDERBILT CLASS.

The $3,000 Collie dog recovered for the Gentry Brothers shows by Paducah detectives, was brought from Scotland by Freddie Vanderbilt, the New York millionaire. This was learned on Detective Baker's delivery of the dog to the show proprietors at Mayfield.

Boys Must Be Clad.

Boys have begun to go in swimming, and Chief of Police James Collins will issue instructions that they confine themselves to swimming places below the city limits or wear bathing suits. Near the saw logs at the Langstaff and Ferguson-Palmer mills are favorite swimming places, but suits will have to be worn by swimmers if they "go in" at these places.

The Difference in Clothes

IT is the easiest thing in the world to buy poor clothes. More men buy that kind than any other. They prevail to a much greater extent than the well-built, individual and distinctive kind. The poor kind is easier made and the profit thereon larger.

But when it comes to satisfaction—that is, wearing qualities, perfect workmanship and correct fashioning—only the good clothes make a return. These are the features we can conscientiously claim for the lines we handle.

When you wear "cheap" clothes you are in constant turmoil; when you wear good clothes satisfaction is uninterrupted. Try it if you never have.

Try a Roxboroworsted, in gray, brown or mixed goods, either in check, plaid or stripe, they are truly "The Master Craftmanship." $20 up to $40.

Try one of our business plaids or checks; the makers are pleased to insure them—so are we—$15, $18, $20, and $25.

Lower priced lines here at $7.50, $10.00 and $12.50.

The trousers department reports a remarkably fine collection of new styles and patterns. Stripes prevail, but other patterns are numerous and all qualities are guaranteed. Style of cut: peg top and conservative—$2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $5.00, $6.00, $7.50, $8.00 and $9.00.

UNDERWEAR SUGGESTIONS

Time to change your underwear. We therefore call your attention to the very complete line we have prepared for you for summer wear. In this assemblage there is contained genuine imported Silks, French Lises, Balbriggans and Nainsooks. The goods come in all styles—long or short sleeve shirts, ankle or knee length drawers; also regular or stout garments; in a long range of prices—50c to $7.50 the suit.

HABERDASHERY SUGGESTIONS

Fine assortment of fancy and washable waistcoats, single breasted, three, four and five buttons—$1.50, $2.00, $2.50 to $10.00.

Fancy negligee shirts—Stars, Cluett's and Wallerstein's; plaited and plain soft bosoms; myriads of patterns—$1.00, $1.50, $2.00 to $5.00.

Fancy neckwear, beautiful silks in narrow four-in-hands and other models. Special attention is called to a splendid line at 50c.

The Boys' Shop

THE little fellows from 2 to 6—larger boys from 7 to 10—growing boys from 11 to 14—youths from 15 to 17—all have an interest in The Boys' Shop, which was created for them especially and is maintained for them exclusively. It is a separate and distinct store in itself and complete in its great display of quality clothes. There is nothing good created in boys' or children's wear that is not shown here in profusion and the range of prices provide for boys in all conditions of life—the children of the laboring man, the merchant and professional man. If you have never visited this department, you should do so in the interest of economy. If you have been here, you will come again without any aid from this advertisement.

Daily Thought.

The busy man never finds the day

REVISION VS. ABOLITION.

Agitation for tariff revision has been revived by the German recipital agreement, and the American Manufacturers' association has come out flat-footed for tariff revision. A poll of the organization shows that 55 per cent favor revision, while 20 per cent favor a "hands off" policy.
The latter may well be classified as revisionists, deterred by expediency.
There are few people in this country, who do not believe the Dingley tariff schedules should be revised.
There are still fewer, who believe in free trade. It is this difference, which complicates the situation. Did the Dingley tariff stand for the ultimate possibility of the doctrine of protective tariff and was free trade the only alternative, the tariff problem would be easy of solution.

But this country is wedded to the doctrine of protective tariff. We have prospered too long and too well under its beneficent ministrations, not to realize the force of reasoning, that "the proof of the pudding is in the eating." Fine spun theories count for nothing in the light of the experience under the Cleveland administration, and the subsequent return of industrial prosperity when the tariff was restored.

The very demonstration of the fact that the Dingley schedules were adapted to suit the conditions encountered at the time they were adopted, indicates that these same schedules should be raised or lowered from time to time to conform to changing conditions. That constitutes the difference between tariff revision and free trade. The whole country practically favors revision, but the necessity for it is not acute, and the overwhelming majority of voters would prefer the continuance of the Dingley schedules to even the danger of a return to free trade.

For this reason the tariff revision should not be made a feature in a political campaign. That could avail nothing except to create a schism in the ranks of protectionists, of which the free traders could take advantage. The only possible national tariff issue is between free trade and protective tariff. Democrats can never honestly advocate revision, when they mean abolition. Republicans would soon see the folly of dividing their strength between standpatism and revision, while the Democrats are fighting for free trade.

Tariff revision should be calmly considered as a matter of expediency after the election is over. It would have been considered ere this, but there were matters of great moment concerning trust evils, pure food and railroad regulation, which needed immediate attention, and which would have been used as clubs by Democratic parliamentarians in congress to force free trade issues on the majority had the tariff question been raised.

The most efficient tariff revision program is for the appointment of a commission to consider the Dingley schedules and hear arguments on all sides of the question and recommend the best schedules to congress. That would remove the tariff from politics, or rather keep it out of politics; for it is practically removed, by the overwhelming sentiment of the country in favor of protective tariff.

Resolutions deploring the reduction of passenger fares, because it may mean the increase of freight rates, adopted by the manufacturers' association, will meet with about as much sympathy from the consumer, who has to pay passenger fare, and in the long run freight rates, too, as will the resolution by the same body condemning "industrial oppression" from the labor unions.

"SOME FAMILY ADVICE."
"Be it said to the discredit of certain ones who should stand in an entirely different light there is a disposition among a few local Democrats to look upon the Democratic ticket recently nominated in Paducah with a spirit of apathy that smacks much of opposition. * * * * * Bolters there are, of course, and bolters there will ever be, and the present campaign will possibly be no exception to this general rule. * * * * * The cry of dissatisfaction that has been raised, however, seems to have affected but a few. * * * * * Extracts from an editorial in a Paducah paper.

One could scarcely expect anything more than apathy from Democratic officials toward the candidate, who made his race for the nomination on a platform exclusively pledging to remove those officials. Party loyalty must be strong in them to induce them to keep hands off.

It was high spirited of the Louisville Herald to say:
Special credit is due to R. W.
Knott and the Evening Post for the part contributed by both to the vindication of the city's honor, through the court of appeals.
Mr. Knott fought a stern and unflinching fight. He strove for the right. The popular heart was with him. He has rendered this city and state a service that cannot be too highly commended or too long remembered. Freedom of elections is closely allied to the freedom of the press. The one finally suppressed, the other could not long endure. Mr.
Knott in his fight for a free and untrammeled ballot, has stabilized the freedom of the press.
Every newspaper in the south is his debtor.

We extend him hearty congratulations on a victory largely personal. But its personal features rob it of no public value.
The people whenever in need of vindication always need a spokesman and defender. Mr. Knott has, in the election cases, proved worthy spokesman and fearless defender.

Discouraging divorce is futile. Encouraging the domestic virtues is more hopeful. Like all other moral questions, the divorce evil must be remedied by applying a preventative to individuals, not by public action.
Treatment for the propagation of domestic virtues should commence when the subject is two hours old and should be continued faithfully by the parents until the subject passes from under parental care. Each generation is to blame for the faults of the succeeding one, and entitled to mighty little credit for its virtues.

Trigg and Caldwell county citizens continue to adopt resolutions deploring the conduct of night riders; but we would take more stock in their sincerity if they would assist in the apprehension and conviction of some of the desperadoes.

Judge Pryor, of the Jefferson county criminal bench, in a lengthy speech defends himself from the attacks of the local papers for his rulings in the Dr. Sarah Murphy case.
Dr. Murphy for the second time in her spotted career was acquitted on the charge of homicide by criminal operation, because the court compelled the commonwealth to proceed without an important witness, who was unaccountably absent. Unfortunately it has been too frequent in Louisville that expert investigation has shown that the coroner called deaths by violence, deaths due to natural causes, when Aaron Kohn or some others was representing suspected persons, and the commonwealth's attorney has prosecuted in a perfurious manner under the same odd spell. Even the rock-ribbed party organ, The Times, had to say something derogatory of the court in the Dr. Sarah Murphy case. Hence the judge's statement.

HOT AIR TREATMENT

Has Proven Its Worth in the Treatment of All Diseases.

I am using, in connection with the Osteopathic treatment, the Dry Hot
Air treatment, and the great successes achieved with it demonstrate its efficacy.

In one form or another heat has been employed in treatment of disease from the earliest times and in every part of the world, but its use
has become more general in later years than ever before—simply because its application and uses have become better known.

We have a better understanding of the physiological laws upon which the treatment is based, and have greatly improved the mechanical apparatus employed until now it is one of the most useful means at our disposal for the treatment of disease.

The treatment is stimulating to the whole system, every organ and function, and when used with the Osteopathic treatment forms the most rational cure in all sciences.

Especially are the treatments indicated in all diseases incident to the season, spring, tired, worn out and run down conditions, malaria, stomach, liver and bowels, and in asthma,
rheumatic, and nervous conditions,
headaches, lumbago and neuralgia.

I should be pleased to have you consult me at any time, and tell you just what Osteopathy will do in any specific case. It has done much for Paducah people you know well, to whom I shall gladly refer you, at any time.

with an empty bag, and seeing a number of ducks in a pond, while near by a man was leaning on a fence watching him, Sheridan asked:
"What will you take for a shot at the ducks?"

"Well," said the man, thoughtfully,
"I'll take half a sovereign."
"Done," said Sheridan, and he fired into the middle of the flock, killing a dozen or more.

"I'm afraid you made a bad bargain," said Sheridan, laughing.

"I don't know about that," the man replied. "They're not my ducks."

HOT AIR TREATMENT

Has Proven Its Worth in the Treatment of All Diseases.

I am using, in connection with the
Osteopathic treatment, the Dry Hot
Air treatment, and the great successes achieved with it demonstrate
its efficacy.

In one form or another heat has
been employed in treatment of disease from the earliest times and in every part of the world, but its use
has become more general in later years than ever before—simply because its application and uses have become better known.

We have a better understanding
of the physiological laws upon
which the treatment is based, and
have greatly improved the mechanical apparatus employed until now it is one of the most useful means at our disposal for the treatment of disease.

The treatment is stimulating to
the whole system, every organ and
function, and when used with the Osteopathic treatment forms the most
rational cure in all sciences.

Especially are the treatments indicated in all diseases incident to the season, spring, tired, worn out and
run down conditions, malaria, stomach, liver and bowels, and in asthma,
rheumatic, and nervous conditions,
headaches, lumbago and neuralgia.

I should be pleased to have you
consult me at any time, and tell you
just what Osteopathy will do in any specific case. It has done much for Paducah people you know well, to whom I shall gladly refer you, at any time.

Only Once.

"The Scotch," said Secretary Wil-

"are certainly a witty people. Now, there was a visitor in the little town of Bowdoin who on looking about saw no children, but only grown men and women. He wondered at this and finally, meeting a weazened old man in the street inquired 'How often are children born in this town?'

"Only once," the man replied, as he proceeded on his way."—Phila-derstanding with President Roose-

S. S. CONVENTION

COLORED BAPTISTS OF WESTERN KENTUCKY IN SESSION.

Interesting Addresses and Discussions—Are Being Made—Trustees of W. & F. College.

The First District Sunday school convention of the Colored Baptists of Kentucky convened here yesterday at the Washington Street Baptist church, the Rev. William Foster, of Elkton, president. The president's annual address, the discussion of the topic, "How to Teach the Sunday School" and the enrollment of messengers and delegates occupied most of the time of the morning session.

Welcome addresses were delivered last night by Howard Hawkins, and C. Emery and the response was made by the Rev. D. W. Bowen and Prof. W. D. Jennings. The Rev. J. R. Kirby, of Princeton, preached the annual sermon.

The Rev. J. Francis Wilson, state organizer of the Baptist Young People's union, and perhaps one of the best informed negro ministers in the state, spoke on the advantages of Christian work among the young people. Dr. Wilson spent several years as a missionary to Africa doing considerable work in Cape Colony.

"How to Teach the Sunday School Lesson" was discussed by Rev. L. C. Majors, of Hopkinsville; J. E. Vaughn, Hopkinsville; J. E. M. J. Jones, Paducah, and others. "How to Teach the School in Order to Make the Doctrine of the Bible Impressive on the Mind of the Pupil," by Rev. T. J. Garrett, E. Williams, W. E. Glover and others.

The board of trustees of W. & F. college is holding its annual session in connection with the convention. This institution located at Hopkinsville is maintained by the colored Baptists of western Kentucky and is doing good work for the people. Prof. P. T. Frazier, president of the institution, preaches tonight.

HIGH SCHOOL

SENIORS ARE ENJOYING PARTIAL VACATION.

Plans for Commencement Loom Large in Contemplation of the Graduates.

Owing to the members of the senior class of the High school being pressed with work in preparing their papers and songs for class day and commencement, and the short time remaining for rehearsing, Professor Payne yesterday excused the members, whose work is not conditional, from appearing at the school next week more than attending the recitations and morning exercises. Arrangements have been made whereby all recitations will come in the morning, which leaves the afternoon free. Miss Adah L. Brazelton, of the High school faculty, and Miss Caroline Ham, the music supervisor, have charge of the rehearsals.

Commencement Invitations.
The invitations for the senior class have been received and were given to the members today. They are neat and attractive, and in the class colors, black and gold. This year they have besides the class roll and invitation, the names of the members of the school board and faculty.

Col. Fanning Talks.
This morning Col. M. F. Fanning delivered an address to the students at the opening exercise. Principal Payne had arranged an excellent program for this week but the other speakers were detained and Mr. Fanning was the only one to appear. He is an excellent speaker and greatly pleased the students.

An Instance.

Good Money Getter.

A grandson of the late State Senator Shumway, when 4 years old, was given a penny with which to buy candy. Accidentally he swallowed the coin. His mother, more excited than the boy, said she must send for the doctor, at once.

"No, don't send for the doctor, mamma," pleaded the lad, who had memories of bitter medicine, "send for the preacher, Auntie says he can get money out of anybody."—Chicago Tribune.

as a blood purifier. Many people, especially those whose work confines them indoors, suffer from impure blood. It takes many forms: eczema, scurf, pimples, sallow complexion, itching, sores, anaemia (poor watery blood) are all a sign that your blood is in an unhealthy condition. The life of the body depends upon rich, pure blood, and the only way to become strong and well is to get at the root of the disease and remove the cause. Dr. Edwards' Compound Dandelion Pills are prepared from a famous old prescription. They contain nothing but vegetable matter and are unequalled as a remedy for the cure of all blood diseases. Philadelphia Jack O'Brien Confesses to Many Fakes in His Ring Career

San Francisco, Cal., May 24.—A local paper today printed a four column signed statement by "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, in which the Quaker heavyweight declares nearly every big fight in which he has been engaged was a fake. O'Brien contends that, having adopted pugilism as a profession, and being far more scientific than most of his opponents, the only way he could get matches was by consenting to frame them up, thus permitting his opponents to clean up liberally in the betting.

O'Brien first details at great length the arrangements made with Tommy Burns. He claims he was not in any condition to fight, but that Burns' eagerness to arrange the fake misled him. Hence he consented to go into the ring when he wasn't fairly trained and it was only when the going sounded that he saw he had been given the double cross. After the first round O'Brien claims all his attention was given to lasting out the twenty rounds, as he was in no condition to put up a good fight.

O'Brien also gives the details of fakes arranged with Peter Jackson, Tommy Ryan, Joe Walcott and with Fitzsimmons in his first fight at Philadelphia. In the fight with Fitz Bob attempted to double cross him. O'Brien declares, but was severely punished. O'Brien also says his bout with Sam Berger in Philadelphia was fixed and that the fight actually was rehearsed in a barn the night before, with Jack Gleason as the solitary spectator.

Sports here regard O'Brien's statement as a lame effort on his part to explain how he came to make so poor a showing recently in Los Angeles. Every expert pronounced O'Brien in the pink of condition, and his presence ent claim that he was not right is scoffed at. Gleason and others here also give the lie to O'Brien's statement that the O'Brien-Berger go at Philadelphia was framed up.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the lord help you make Bucks' Arica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time. Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at all druggists.

EXCELLENT SPORT AT FAIR GROUNDS

Four Good Races Between Local Horses and Horsemen

Large and Enthusiastic Crowd Attends First Meet of Paducah Matinee Club.

THE WINNERS IN THE EVENTS.

Class C Trot, won by Red Rock, owned and driven by C. L. Van Meter.

Class B Pace, won by Sarah McGregor, owned by G. C. Wallace, driven by Gus Thompson.

Class A Trot, won by Billy Buck, owned and driven by Gus Thompson.

Class A Pace, won by Harry A., owned and driven by Virgil Sherrill.

With the most excellent of weather, a fast track, and a large crowd on hand to witness the sport, the initial races of the Matinee club at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon proved a success beyond the expectations of the promoters. The sport was satisfactory in every detail. The delay in getting the starters ready for the track caused some little fatigue, but this will be avoided in the future by stringent rules. The races started at 2:35 o'clock and following were the officials:

Wynn Tully, starter and time keeper; Hon. C. K. Wheeler, Hon. James M. Lang and Mr. John S. Bleeker, judges; Mr. Zack Bryant, track marshal.

The races were run in half mile heats limited to three, best two out of three winner.

Class A Pace.

Starters—Harry A., owned and driven by Virgil Sherrill.

"J. T.", owned by Edward Morgan, driven by C. H. Harris.

Brook Hill, owned and driven by Gus Thompson.

George Starr, owned and driven by Dr. Ed Farley.
After five futile starts they got away with Brook Hill in the lead and Harry A., "J. T." and George Starr following in order. George Starr's break lost his chances. They finished as follows: Harry A., "J. T.", Brook Hill, and George Starr, time 1:06 1/2.

In the second heat Brook Hill became ill and was withdrawn. They started, Harry A., George Starr and "J. T." in order. George Starr, after a hard run, broke in the stretch. Harry A. finished first and "J. T." second, time 1:07 1/2.

500 Grains of Impurity.

Healthy kidneys remove 500 grains of impure matter from the blood every day.

If they don't, what happens?

Kidney and bladder trouble of all kinds and many other bodily derangements arising from impure blood. Heart trouble, liver trouble, stomach trouble, eruptions of the skin, in fact, a general derangement of all the vital organs of the body.

The first sign of inactive kidneys may be any of the following: Lame back, pains in the side, cloudy, highly colored or offensive smelling urine, dizziness, excessive thirst, sallow or muddy complexion and a general run down feeling.

What you should do if you have any of the above symptoms.

As soon as possible commence taking Lantz's Red Kidney Pills. They contain medicinal properties that will both heal and soothe the kidneys and will enable them to properly perform their function of removing all the impurities from the blood and will prevent the more serious and dangerous forms of kidney and bladder trouble, such as Diabetes and Bright's disease, the latter of which in its chronic form is always fatal.

Physicians everywhere prescribe and recommend Lantz's Red Kidney Pills as the surest and best cure for all kidney and bladder trouble.

So certain are we that they will cure that we place our guaranty in every box. If you are not benefited your money will be cheerfully refunded.

The Pills contain no harmful ingredients and may be taken by the most delicate person.

Cleanse Your Kidneys with Lantz's Red Kidney Pills.

If you have never used these Pills, we will gladly give you a two days' trial treatment free.

Gus B. broke at the start with Trixie well in the lead. Tobe Scott was working hard for the lead with Sarah McGregor, Geo. C. Wallace driving, third. They finished in order of starting. Time 1:16.

In the second heat three futile starts were made, and on the fourth Sarah McGregor, Gus Thompson driving, took the lead with Tobe Scott, Trixie and Gus B. in order. Trixie took Gus B. in the first quarter and finished second behind Sarah McGregor, Tobe Scott third and Gus B. last. Time 1:12.

In the third heat Sarah McGregor got away first with Trixie second and Tobe Scott, Tom Settle driving, third. The finish was a neck and neck race between Sarah McGregor and Tobe Scott, who had taken second place from Trixie on the quarter. Both Sarah McGregor and Tobe Scott broke in the stretch, but the former won by a neck. Time 1:12.

Class A Trot.

Second heat—Billy Buck took the lead with Belle Brooks and Mattie Wilkes following. Belle Brooks passed Mattie Wilkes with ease, the latter breaking. Billy Buck finished in lead. Time 1:11 1/4.

Class C Trot.

Starters—Anita, owned and driven by Joseph L. Friedman.

Red Rock, owned and driven by C. L. Van Meter.

Brann W., owned by C. H. Harris, driven by Tom Settle.

Result.

Red Rock, first; Brann W. second, and Anita third.

Starters got away in a bunch. Anita broke at the first turn and Brann W. kept well in the lead, Red Rock pushing hard. Red Rock spoiled his chances by a break on the last turn, Brann W. doing the half in 1:25.

In the second heat Anita broke again at the first turn but gained and nearly bunched. Red Rock, in an elegant burst of speed passed Brann W. by half a length. Time 1:28.

The third heat was exciting, the starters getting away in a bunch. Red Rock was stepping fast with Brann W. pushing hard, when Brann W. broke on the stretch and Red Rock won by a big margin. Time 1:25 1/2.

Pittsburg	4.3 0.8 fall
St. Louis	15.3 1.0 fall
Mt. Vernon	14.4 1.6 fall
Paducah	19.2 2.2 fall

Traffic on the river was fair today and continued warm weather ought to enliven business. No decrease in the rate of fall in the river has occurred, the stage this morning being 2.2 lower than yesterday. May 24 last year the stage was $2. Rain is in prospect. One of the Mary McNeil's big barges of logs brought the day before yesterday from the Hatchle river, sprung a leak last night and the Fannie Wallace, spent six hours pumping it out.

Pilots seem scarce in the local harbor as well as engineers, as the Lyda has been waiting for a Cumberland river pilot off the excursion steamer J. S., before it could leave. The J. S. arrived today from Nashville and an Ohio river pilot went aboard to take the steamer on to Evansville.

With its name in a process of evolution, the Pittsburgh arrived yesterday afternoon from Pittsburgh with 25 barges of coal. Five were left here for the Pittsburgh Coal company. The Pittsburgh formerly was the J. B. Clark, but the numerous accidents met with by the big towboat caused the combine to change the name. On the pilot house the name Pittsburgh is seen, while no name is on the engine room, and on the rear over the wheel, the old name J. B. Clark is left. The Pittsburgh went on down to the Mississippi river this morning.

The Chattanooga, painted, refurnished, repaired and otherwise overhauled, will be let off the ways next Wednesday.

They are working hard on the Louisiana to get everything shipshape for the excursion to Smithland Sunday. The smokestacks will be put up today.

The Charles Turner is receiving new sheets in the boilers and probably will be ready for business Monday.

Graves county's delegation to the Henderson convention came down by river on the John Hopkins yesterday.

"Hence loathed Melancholy." Inspectors Green and St. John will be in the city tomorrow or the first of next week to inspect the Chattanooga.

Last Day in Paducah

MR. CASH, MANAGER OF LEADING MEDICAL CONCERN WILL CLOSE ENGAGEMENT HERE ON SATURDAY EVENING—PLEASED AT GOOD RESULTS.

Throongs Continue to Visit the Young Man and Purchase His Remedies.

EXPRESSIONS OF GRATITUDE.

Mr. Cash, the manager of a large medical concern, has been at McPherson's drug store since Tuesday, personally introducing his great preparations, closes his work here Saturday evening in order to fill engagements elsewhere. The demand for him to remain longer is strong, but as stated before, his time is limited.

Among the callers at the drug store are both those who have been benefited and anxious to express their gratitude, and still others eager to purchase the remedies. One traveling man who stopped at the hotel with Mr. Cash said: "I live in Indianapolis. For years I have tried to cure rheumatism and kidney trouble which have so annoyed me but I have generally grown worse. Doctors seem to have not been able to reach the cause. When I arrived here I purchased a trial treatment. Although I have taken it but two days I must admit I believe it the greatest remedy I ever tried." Similar statements by others treated proves that there is a cause for the interest manifested. When seen today Mr. Cash said: "I am pleased at the good results those who have taken my remedies have obtained, and have reported to me. The special inducements I made were to those needing my preparations is backed by a guarantee. The preparations purchased of me while here can be returned if they do not produce the desired results, at any time. A remedy which will not help in forty-eight hours would not be in as many years. My preparations are universally conceded to give immediate relief." From the reports which come from other cities of Mr. Cash, his closing days are always his busiest. If Paducah is like other cities, Saturday being his last day here he will be a busy man. He will be at the store Saturday evening to see those not able to get there during the day. This is a rare chance for sufferers from Deafness, Stomach, Kidney or Liver troubles, as well as those having rheumatism, constipation or nervous debility, to receive a trial treatment strictly on a guarantee. Many are taking advantage of the opportunity.

The Kentucky, Albert Rittenhouse and all arrived from the Tennessee river last night with a big trip of lumber and tobacco. Seven car loads of lumber were refused on this trip. The Kentucky is unloading at Brookport today and will leave Saturday evening for the Tennessee river.

The Bluespot, a long-looked for sight in the local harbor, will arrive June 1, it is said. The Bluespot is the converted Wilmot. The Holcomb-Hayes Tie company will add her to their fleet. A tow of coal is being brought down by the Bluespot.

Among the regular arrivals, the Georgia Lee passed up from Memphis yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock for Cincinnati.

The Peters Lee will pass down from Cincinnati for Memphis Saturday afternoon.

The Joe Fowler steered in and then steered out again in the Evansville trade today.

The Harth brought coal from the Caseyville mines to the West Kentucky Coal company last night.

Two masts will be placed in the schooner at the dry docks instead of one, and the additional mast will necessitate 1,400 yards of canvas sails instead of 1,025 as at first planned. The schooner is in shape to see its design now.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville and Mt. Vernon will continue falling during the next 36 hours. At Paducah and Cairo will continue to fall rapidly during the next 36 hours, and at a slower rate thereafter for two days.

The Tennessee from Florence to the mouth, and the Mississippi from below St. Louis to Cairo, will continue falling during the next 36 hours.

The Wabash at Mt. Carmel, will fall tonight.

A Square Deal

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate woman and child. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for extraction and preservation than the principles used in them, viz., pure refined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antiferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels. Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. It is in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchitis, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hacking coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial membrane. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption. "It is the best medicine that can be taken."

CHAPTER XXXIII.

ONE of his three visitors Duncombe recognized immediately. It was M. Louis. Of the other two, one was a Frenchman, a somewhat somber looking person in a black beard and gold rimmed eyeglasses, the other as unmistakably an Englishman of the lower middle class. His broad shoulders and somewhat stiff bearing seemed to suggest some sort of drill. Looking them over, Duncombe found himself instinctively wondering whether the personal strength of these two, which was obvious, might become a factor in the coming interview.

The baron naturally was spokesman. He bowed very gravely to Duncombe, and did not offer his hand. "I must apologize, Sir George," he said, "for disturbing you at such an inopportune hour. Our business, however, made it necessary for us to reach you with as little delay as possible."

"Perhaps you will be good enough to explain," Duncombe answered, "what that business is."

The baron raised his hands with a little protesting gesture.

"I regret to tell you, Sir George," he announced, "that it is of a most unpleasant nature. I could wish that its execution had fallen into other hands. My companions are M. Ridalle of the French detective service, and our other friend here, whom I do not know, is a constable from the Norwich police court. My own connections with the police service of my country you have already, without doubt, surmised."

"Go on," Duncombe said.

"I regret to say," M. Louis continued, "that my friends here are in charge of a warrant for your arrest. You will find them possessed of all the legal documents, French and English. We shall have to ask you to come to Norwich with us tonight."

"Arrest!" Duncombe repeated. "On what charge?"

"An extremely serious one," the baron answered gravely. "The charge of murder."

Duncombe stared at him in amazement.

"Murder!" he repeated. "What rubbish!"

"The murder of Mlle. de Mermillon in her lodging on the night of the 7th of June last," the baron said gravely. "Please do not make any remarks before these men. The evidence against you is already sufficiently strong."

Duncombe laughed derisively.

"What sort of a puppet show is this?" he exclaimed. "You know as well as any man living how that poor girl came to her end. This is a cover for something else, of course. What do you want of me? Let's get at it without wasting time."

"What we want of you is, I am afraid, only too simple," the baron answered, shrugging his shoulders. "We must ask you to accompany us at once to Norwich castle. You will have to appear before the magistrates in the morning, when they will sign the extradition warrant. Our friend here, M. Ridalle, will then take charge of you. Perhaps you would like to look through the documents. You will find them all in perfect order."

Duncombe mechanically glanced through the French and English papers which were spread out before him. They had certainly a most uncomfortable appearance of being genuine. He began to feel a little bewildered.

"You mean to say that you have come here to arrest me on this charge? That you want me to go away with you tonight?" he asked.

"It is not a matter of wanting you to come," the baron answered coldly. "It is a matter of necessity."

Duncombe moved toward the fireplace.

"Will you allow me the privilege of a few moments' conversation with you in private?" he said to the baron. "Your companions will perhaps excuse you for a moment."

The baron followed without remark. They stood facing one another upon the hearth rug. Duncombe leaned one elbow upon the mantelpiece and turned toward his companion.

"Look here," he said, "those papers seem genuine enough, and if you insist upon it I will go with you to Norwich. I shall take care not to let you out of my sight, and if when we get there I find that it is any part of one of your confounded conspiracies you will find that the penalties for this sort of thing in England are pretty severe. However, no doubt you are well aware of that. The question is this: What do you really want from me?"

M. Louis, who had lit a cigarette, withdrew it from his mouth and examined the lighted end for a moment in silence.

"The documents," he said, "are genuine. You are arraigned in perfectly legal fashion. Upon the affidavits there the magistrates must grant the extradition warrant without hesitation. We have nothing to fear in that direction. The evidence is remarkably convincing."

"Police concocted evidence," Duncombe remarked, "would necessarily be so. I admit that you hold a strong card against me. I don't believe, however, that you have gone to all this trouble without some ulterior motive. What is it? What can I offer you in exchange for these documents?"

M. Louis smiled.

"You are a man of common sense, Sir George," he said. "I will speak to you without reserve. It is possible that you might be able to offer the government department of my country to which I am attached an inducement to interest themselves in my behalf. Mind, I am not sure, but if my information is correct there is certainly a possibility."

"The government department of my country to which you are attached," Duncombe repeated thoughtfully. "Let me understand you. You mean the secret service police?"

TWO CENT FARE

STILL BEING FOUGHT BY RAIL-ROADS IN ILLINOIS.

L. & N. Counsel Gives Governor Start
By Saying Bill Takes Commission's Power.

Springfield, Ill., May 24.—The 2 cent passenger fare bill passed by the recent general assembly was torn into shreds today by railroad officials big and little, representing a dozen systems in Illinois. The constitutionality of the act was questioned, the fairness and justice were ridiculed, and notice was served that if it received executive approval the railroads would fight it to a finish.

J. M. Hamill, of Belleville, counsel for the Louisville & Nashville, raised a point which caused Gov. Denen to sit up and take notice. He declared the passage of the act would repeal that of 1873, empowering the railroad and warehouse commission to fix passenger rates, and, in all probability, would take from that body the authority to control freight rates as well. He told the governor that if the bill were vetoed and the railroad and warehouse commission, after a thorough investigation, changed the present rate the railroads would stand by its decision.

R. M. Shaw, of the legal department of the Chicago & Alton railway company laid before Gov. Denen a brief in support of his arguments questioning the validity of the act. Mr. Shaw reasoned that the act is illegal because it makes no provision for an appeal to the courts, thus depriving the companies of their property without due process of law, and because the railroads are deprived of equal protection of law, when, he claimed undoubtedly would be the case, the courts declare the act confiscatory with reference to certain railroads.

The Dear Old Dollar.

"How dear to our hearts is the old silver dollar, when some kind subscriber presents it to view—the liberty head without necktie or collar, and all the strange things that to us seem so new; the wide-spreading eagle, the arrows below it, the stars and the words with the queer things to tell. The coin of our fathers! We're glad that we know it, for some time or other 'twill come in right well—the spreading dollar, the old silver dollar, the big, welcome dollar we all love so well."—Kansas City Journal.

Down Throgmorton street they walked side by side in a melancholy silence. "Bull or bear?" whispered the sympathetic friend. "Merely the ordinary ruddy ass, laddie," returned the gloomy one, and passed on.—Sporting Times.

TARIFF REVISION

IS FAVORED BY MAJORITY OF MANUFACTURERS ASS'N.

Raise Over Million Dollars With Which to Fight "Dictatorial Combinations."

New York, May 24.—The National Association of Manufacturers of the United States went on record today as in favor of a revision of the tariff at the earliest opportunity, and the negotiation of more reciprocity treaties.

A lively debate preceded the vote, which was upon the acceptance of the report of the committee on tariff and reciprocity. The committee based its recommendations on a roll of the 3,000 members of the association. Of the total number replying 55 per cent declared for immediate revision, while 20 per cent expressed a "hands off" sentiment. Eight per cent believed that the time for revision had not arrived, and the other 17 per cent expressed indifference or made non-committal answers.

Work of Closing Day.

The mass of resolutions adopted by the association on this, the closing day of its convention, included endorsement of the open shop, industrial education, the improvement of the consular service, commendation of the national river and harbor congress, urging the president to withhold his approval of the new German agreement until the testimony of practical producers could be obtained regarding the effects upon domestic labor and industry likely to follow the customs administrative changes in favor of "export values," and opposition to all illegal combinations, either of capital or labor.

This last resolution was given added force by the convention's declared determination to raise $1,500,000 to carry out a campaign of education concerning dictatorial combinations.

The association re-elected James W. Van Cleave, of St. Louis, president and F. H. Stillman, of New York, treasurer.

The convention closed with a banquet, at which Secretaries Cortelyou and Straus were the principal speakers.

A Hard Debt To Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equalled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

After Death.

In a Scotch Sunday school the lady teacher, after speaking on the subject of death, asked:

"And what comes after death?"
Instantly a little girl called out eagerly, "A fight about the money."

ROOSEVELT IN HEALTH PLAN.

Writes "Committee of One Hundred" Should Be National Ambition.

Washington, D. C., May 23.—President Roosevelt has written a letter to Irving Fisher, president of the "Committee of One Hundred," commending the work of that body in its efforts to bring about increased federal regulations concerning public health.

The president says that national health is physically the greatest national asset and that to prevent any possible deterioration of the American stock should be a national ambition.

He pledges himself to aid the movement as much as he can.

Beer.

"Germany is the leading producer of beer," says a London newspaper, "with 1,601,000,000 gallons in 1905. The United Kingdom, which brewed 1,219,000,000 gallons, has lately resigned the second place to the United States, which manufactured 1,413,000,000 gallons. The production of both Germany and the United States is increasing, while that of the United Kingdom has steadily decreased from 1,301,000,000 gallons in 1901. The United Kingdom is far down the scale as a drinker of either spirits or wines. In fact, in regard to these it is behind some of its own colonies, which care little for beer. Both Australia and Canada, which take only 11.3 and 5.4 gallons of beer per head, respectively, drink more spirits than the United Kingdom, proportionately to the population."

TWO THROWN OUT

SAMUEL QUISSENBERRY AND L. E. JENKINS INJURED.

Manager of Western Union Dragged Half Block By Runaway Team Yesterday.

Mr. Samuel Quisenberry, manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, and L. E. Jenkins, a fireman, were injured yesterday afternoon in a runaway at Second and Jackson streets, but their condition is not serious. They were driving on South Second street en route to the Ferguson-Palmer mills at Third and Elizabeth streets, when they turned into Jackson street, the buggy tongue snapped, frightening the horses. Mr. Quisenberry was thrown out and dragged for half a block before he succeeded in extricating himself from the tangle of lines. Mr. Jenkins was also thrown out and sustained a sprained ankle. The horses collided with a fence at Fourth and Jackson streets partially demolishing it. Two blocks further on they were stopped.

Mr. Quisenberry was carried into DuBois & company's drug store, at Third and Jackson streets, and physicians summoned. He sustained a severe cut over his left ear, a hole in his forehead and a gash in his right leg. Jenkins sustained a sprained ankle.

The Little Things Count in Clothes

IF you studied clothes as we do you would be surprised to find how the little things—things you seldom think of—make a big showing. Take coat lapels for instance. Let them look dragged or shabby, and your whole suit seems worn and dreary. But, let them be graceful, well set, properly proportioned and how they brighten up a suit is wonderful.

The lapels on our suits are made with extreme care. But, so is every detail that enters into their manufacture. The coats are full chested, the shoulders graceful and mannish, the cloth carefully shrunk before being made up, the buttons extra sewed, and those little things put into the garment to make it hold its shape without the constant resort to the tailor's iron!

We are showing the prettiest patterns in the new grays and browns, the checks and over-plaids you will see in the city and we shall be pleased to have you drop in to slip on one or two of these suits, and note the splendid workmanship.

His Requisition.

The records in the war department in Washington are, as a rule, very dry, but occasionally an entry is found that is humorous.

An officer of engineers, in charge of the construction of a road that was to be built through a swamp, being energetic himself and used to surmounting mere obstacles, was surprised when one of his young lieutenants whom he had ordered to take twenty men and enter the swamp said that he "could not do it—the mud was too deep." The colonel ordered him to try. He did so, and returned with his men covered with mud, and said:

and returned with his men covered with mud, and said:

The colonel insisted, and told him to make a requisition for anything that was necessary for the safe passage. The lieutenant made his requisition in writing and on the spot. It was as follows:
